The Education and Research Award

Introduction

The CNSA is committed to the development of undergraduate education and research, as well as, the development of partnerships among nurse researchers, nursing students, educators, practicing nurses, and clinical agencies. For this reason the CNSA is proud to establish the Education/Research Award. This recognizes a nursing student's contribution towards education and research within their profession, during this academic career.

Criteria

- The award is available to nursing students enrolled in a nursing school which is a current member of the CNSA.
- The applicant must be in good academic standing in their nursing program
- The applicants must have their research or educational project completed by the end of the application year to be eligible for the award. Those students who will be completing their work after this date must apply for the following year. Applicants who will be graduating, but will be finishing their work after the deadline will be eligible to apply for the award during this year.
- The applicant must provide a report/article about the research or educational activity to CNSA in a form suitable for publication in the e-Connection or other such publication.
- Members of the CNSA BOD may not apply for this award during their term of office.
